A Collation of News from All Over the World.

A Forest of Political, Commercial and General Intelligence, Thoroughly sifted for Eagle Readers.

Death of His Devoted Wife.
Princess Bismarck, wife of Prince Bismarck, died at Vaux at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. Princess Bismarck (Duchess of Lauenburg), wife of Prince Bismarck, has been in poor health for a long time. Her illness became pronounced two months ago. She was deeply affected and received a severe shock when the death of her long friend, Frau Eugenie Beckow, Princess of the Stolp Institute for Unmarried Women, was announced. Three weeks ago Dr. Schwabinger was called to Friedrichsruhe to prescribe for a serious attack of neuritis. Since that time she has been almost continually under the care of physicians. All the family were hastily summoned to her bedside. Count Herbert Bismarck arrived Monday evening, and was present when his mother passed away. Although it is feared that the effect of his wife's death upon the Prince will be serious, it is anticipated that the Prince, the great Chancellor has been in better health lately, and that he has been able to resume his daily drives. Frau Johanna von Bismarck was the daughter of the Pomeranian grandseigneur Heinrich von Puttkamer, who died immediately after the Franco-Prussian war. The Puttkamer family belongs to what is known in Prussia as the Pietist sect, whose faith and practice closely resemble those of the Quakers. The Princess had a very pious disposition, idolized her husband, and was one of the best mothers in Germany. It is known that the happiest relations always existed between the Prince and wife, and if the Princess had been spared until next spring they would have celebrated their golden wedding.

GET SEVEN BANDITS.
Police of Texas Capture the Looters of the Express Office at Canadian.
An attempt was made to hold up the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe depot and Wells-Fargo express office at Canadian, Tex., Friday night. Five packages of money, consigned from George Isaacs at Kansas City, Mo., to George Isaacs at Canadian, Tex., and purporting to contain $25,000, arrived at Canadian that night, and within forty-five minutes after the train came in a band of robbers attempted to hold up the depot. Sheriff Metcalf of Hemphill County, who was there alone, attempted to stand the robbers off, when he was shot and mortally wounded, dying of his wounds. The robbers escaped unhurt. A posse was made up and a search for the robbers began. Word has been received that the posse surrounded the bandits in the Antelope hills, in the Cheyenne country, and after a desperate fight captured seven of the party. A relief party containing surgeons left for the scene. The robbers were heavily armed and all well mounted. A reward of $4,000 has been offered for their capture.

Main for Revenge.
Attorney Edward P. Hilliard, of Chicago, was shot and almost instantly killed by Henry Charles Hastings in his office, Room 300 Rookery Building, at 2:40 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Hastings fired only one shot. The murderer, who is a milk dealer, was arrested right after the shooting. He claims to have been a victim of the lawyer's sharp practice, losing his home in a real estate deal dating several years back. The murdered man was the son of Lorin P. Hilliard, one of Chicago's oldest settlers. He leaves a widow and one child, a girl.

Expect Gold to Flow Back.
Treasury officials expect that most of the gold withdrawn from the subtreasury at New York during the last two weeks by firms and banks, aggregating $4,500,000, now that the entire issue of bonds has been awarded to the Stewart syndicate, will be returned to the treasury. These firms and banks withdrew the gold in anticipation that they would be successful bidders for part of the new bonds.

Steamer Falcon Said to Be Lost.
A correspondent at Port Moresby, C. B., writes that an American fishing schooner put in there the other day and reported that the steamer Falcon, returning from Philadelphia to St. Johns, after conveying home Mrs. Peary and the auxiliary exploring parties, was wrecked on the Virgin rocks off the coast of Newfoundland last month during a big storm and all on board were drowned.

Three Men Fatally Injured.
At 8 o'clock Tuesday morning a terrible explosion occurred at the Jack Oak coal mines, three miles from Albia, Iowa, three men being fatally injured. The explosion resulted from a common powder blast, which ignited the gases. The loss to the mine property will be heavy.

New Plague in Brazil.
A plague has appeared among Chinese coolies in various parts of the states of Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo. The disease causes death in a few hours and doctors are undecided whether it is cholera or a new type of yellow fever.

Mr. Cleveland Is Better.
The cabinet meeting Tuesday was postponed for the third time, owing to the absence of the President. His physician reports that while the President is much better his rheumatic foot worries him considerably.

Fire in a Big Clothing Store.
At Great Falls, Mont., fire was discovered Tuesday morning in A. Nathan's clothing store. The damage was heavy, probably $20,000, as the stock carried amounts to $100,000, and the store was badly damaged by smoke and water. Both building and stock are fully insured. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

Brazil Prepares for War.
The Cologne Gazette publishes a dispatch from Rio de Janeiro stating that the Brazilian Government has ordered the construction of four cruisers to be built in the Germania dock yard.

Frightful Motor Accident.
A runaway motor car, jumping the track at a crossing, struck a street car, fatally injuring the motorist and two of the passengers and seriously injuring four others Friday evening. The car was on a steep grade, and defective brakes caused the accident.

Harvard Goes Down.
In Saturday's great football game at Springfield, Mass., Yale defeated Harvard by a score of 12 to 4, though Harvard played the most scientific game. Six men were hurt so they had to be carried from the field, one having his collar bone broken.

HOWGATE MAY ESCAPE.

Conviction, It Is Said, Would Involve Many Prominent People.
A Washington dispatch says that when Captain Howgate was brought back from New York a few weeks ago the opinion was very freely expressed in the department, as well as through the city generally, that Howgate would never be brought to trial. It was known by the action by the courts looking to the punishment of the defaulter would certainly involve a great many people who were prominent ten or fifteen years ago, and it was believed that no legal stone would be left unturned to prevent a trial of the wily captain. Now it is announced that flaws have been found in the indictment which will be important enough to prevent a trial. And thus another unbalanced account will be carried on the books of the Treasury Department for years to come. In this connection a very interesting piece of ancient history cropped out. It was reported by a gentleman who had intimate knowledge of the affair that the acquittal of Andrew Johnson was secured by the purchase of the votes of United States Senators at $100,000 each, and that the purchase price of one of these Senators was furnished by a prominent Federal official in the North, while the balance of the money was contributed by an equally prominent official in the South. The latter, however, concluded he might as well make a little something for himself, and instead of stealing $100,000 he slipped $240,000. His defalcation was known and the record of it is still in the Treasury Department, but no step was ever taken toward his prosecution because such action would have resulted in involving too many people high up in the councils of the nation.

FOUND GUILTY OF MUTINY.

Six Indians of the Crew of Sealing Schooner Await Sentence.
At the Westminster assizes, Vancouver, B. C., six of the Indian crew of the sealing schooner C. D. Rand were found guilty of revolt and mutiny on the high seas. Just outside Behring Sea, on last season's sealing cruise, this crew took possession of the vessel, and remained in command for nine days. The Indians outnumbered the white crew three to one. At length the captain took advantage of a favorable opportunity, when only two of the Indians were on deck, and drove them into the hold, where he kept them confined until the vessel reached Vancouver. For the defense it was claimed that the captain supplied them with whiskey, gave them no food, and was taking them to Copper Island instead of Behring Sea, as had been agreed upon, and the Indians fearing barbarous treatment at the hands of the Russians at Copper Island, revolted. The defense, however, was broken down, and the Indians convicted.

OFFICIAL LIST NOT MADE.

Clerk of the House Will This Time Proceed with Caution.
An erroneous impression has gone out that the clerk of the House of Representatives has prepared an official list of members of the LIVth Congress. This he has not done, says a Washington dispatch, and would not be able to do if so disposed, for the reason that official returns have so far been received from only two districts of the 35th, those being the two Oregon districts. It is not expected that certificates of election will in any large number be placed with the clerk before the convening of the short session, and the probabilities are that all the certificates will not be on file for some time after that date. But even if certificates should be filed representing all the districts of the entire country, the clerk would not in this instance probably be disposed to issue an official roll call of the next Congress before the expiration of the present.

TELLER ON THE BOND ISSUE.

Colorado Senator Says It Will Not Help the Treasury Gold Reserve.
Senator Teller has started for Washington. Before his departure he said regarding the new bond issue: "In my opinion it is foolish to suppose that the issue of bonds tends to keep a large reserve of gold in the treasury, as the bonds are purchased with gold that has been withdrawn from the treasury a few days previously. I don't believe there is any system of finance that will bring prosperity to the country that does not include the free use of silver with gold at the present mint ratio of 16 to 1, or at the French ratio of 15 1/2 to 1. I believe further that the political party that will insure a return of that system will be the successful party in American politics."

Everything Is Lovely.

A letter from Mayroyen Bey, the Sublime Porte's representative at Washington, to the New York Herald regarding the reported Turkish outrages in Armenia, says: "I have been, I admit, very much surprised, I will not say with the unfairness, but with the hastiness of the New York daily press' criticisms and publications of wild reports about the disturbances created by certain misguided Armenians in some parts of Asiatic Turkey. The assertions published by the London Daily News are entirely incorrect. The facts are as follows: Armenian brigands, having in their possession arms of foreign origin, in connection with insurgent Kurds, burned and destroyed Mussulman villages near Sassoun. In order to give an idea of the ferocity displayed by these Armenian bands, the example, among many others, may be given of the burning alive of a Mussulman after his being forced to swallow some explosive matters. Regular troops were sent with instructions to protect peaceful inhabitants, and notwithstanding the calamities which were published against these troops, the truth is that they have not only protected all law-abiding subjects, including of course women and children, but also restored peace to the satisfaction of all. It has also been said that the Kurds had stolen all the furniture and cattle of the Armenian fugitives. It is not so."

Big Log Pool Planned.

The lumbermen of Minneapolis who are cutting on the upper Mississippi and its tributaries have decided to form a big log pool, and the committee is working out the details. The firms will subscribe stock in the pool to the amount of the logs they want to get out of the cut. The pool will then buy all logs by scale at the bank, and attend to driving and sorting them, reselling them to the mills as wanted for cutting.

Granted an Appeal.

The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia granted the motion of counsel for Messrs. Chapman and MacArthur, the indicted chieftains of the sugar trust, for a writ of habeas corpus, for an appeal from the recent decision of Judge Cole, holding that they are liable to punishment for refusal to answer questions put by the Senate Committee. The date for hearing arguments on the appeal has not been fixed.

Bound for Tien-Tsin.

Shanghai advices say Count Oyama's army is marching northward through the Liao Tung peninsula in the direction of Tien-Tsin. He has left 30,000 troops behind for the investment of Port Arthur. After reaching Nienchwang it is said that Oyama's destination will be Shan-Hai-Kwan, the terminus of the railroad to Tien-Tsin.

Larger Employment of Labor.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: There is some change for the better. The gain is slow and in some directions not very distinct, but the signs of it are a little more definite than last week. The most important of them is larger employment of labor, answering a better demand on the whole for manufactured products. Much of this is due to the unusual quantity of orders for the winter which resulted from protracted uncertainty, but it means actual increase in earnings and purchasing power of the millions, and so gives promise of a larger demand in the future. Prices of farm products in the aggregate do not improve, but the prevailing hopefulness is felt in somewhat larger transactions.

KILLED WITH $52,000 INSURANCE.

Man Takes Out $42,000 of This the Night He Loses His Life.
The accident insurance companies of the country are investigating the death of Albert G. Mitchell, a prominent business man of Memphis, Tenn. The night of November 8 Mr. Mitchell left St. Louis for Memphis over the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern Railway. He had a berth on the sleeping car. When he arose the following morning he walked out on the platform. While standing there a train gave a lurch and Mr. Mitchell was thrown from the train. The train was stopped and Mr. Mitchell's body was taken on board. Since his death it is learned that at the time he had $52,000 accident insurance. Of this amount $42,000 was taken out in St. Louis on the evening of November 8 when he purchased his railroad ticket. The insurance was distributed among eight companies.

CIRCULARS SENT TO WOMEN.

Green Goods Men Seeking for Buyers Among the Fair Sex.
Baltimore is again being flooded with green goods circulars. Women, not men, are now given an opportunity by the gentry to get much for little. Within the last few days any number of them have received the imitation typewritten paper directing them how to get the counterfeits. Investigation shows that the business women, dressmakers and others are those usually chosen as victims. The full names of the parties to whom a mention is given appear on the addressed envelope. The circular is headed "Confidential," and the recipient is addressed as "friend."

Treasurer's Report.

The annual report of United States Treasurer H. D. Morgan shows that the net ordinary revenues for the last fiscal year were $297,722,019, a decrease of $88,007,000 as compared with the year before. The net ordinary expenditures were $307,525,279, a decrease of $15,052,074. Including the public debt, the total receipts on all accounts were $724,553,538 and the expenditures $608,908,552.

He Steals a Fortune.

The New York National Shoe and Leather Bank has been robbed of $354,000. The man accused is Edward C. Seely. For fourteen years Seely has been a trusted bookkeeper in the institution. For more than nine years, it is now alleged, he has been stealing the bank's funds methodically and persistently, aided by one of the bank's depositors. Both men are missing.

Indiana Doctors Get In Trouble.

Dr. Samuel Killmer, Harry McDonald and Elmer Strayer, of South Bend, Ind., have been arrested on grand jury warrants issued on indictments charging them with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. They are engaged in making and selling lotions for the improvement of complexions of women. They represent about 150 firms.

Fatally Hurt Defending a Daughter.

Elmer Stout, aged 17, attempted to assault a daughter of J. L. Keith, a farmer living east of Guthrie, O. T., as he was on his way to school. Mr. Keith saw him and ran to his daughter's rescue, but was himself knocked down, kicked and beaten into insensibility. Mr. Keith is nearly 70 years old and will die from his injuries.

Insurers Refuse to Pay.

The result of the clinical analysis of the contents of the stomach of the late Clinton A. Woodbury, of Portland, Me., is known to have revealed the presence of enough prussic acid to cause death. Mr. Woodbury was insured for $100,000 in the New York Life and Mutual Insurance companies. Litigation will result.

Earthquake in Connecticut.

Slight shocks of earthquake were reported from towns adjacent to New London, Conn., Friday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock, reports coming from Groton, Mystic, Lynn and Niantic, where the sound was as of distant thunder and the vibration pronounced. No damage is reported so far as known.

Found Gold in a Mound.

By direction of an Indian woman John McCampbell, who lives twenty miles from Middleboro, Ky., dug in a mound on his farm and found $4,000 in gold. Great excitement prevails, as other claims are thought to be buried there.

New Minister to Washington.

The Bundesrath has appointed Dr. Ploda von Locarni to be Swiss minister to Washington. He is now counselor of the Swiss legation at Rome.

Rev. R. Kelley Falls Dead.

Rev. R. Kelley, hero of two wars, local preacher, twice sheriff of Brown county, aged 78, fell from his horse dead on the roadway at Nashville, Ind.

Miss Stevenson Improving.

Miss Stevenson, daughter of the Vice-President, passed a restful day Sunday at Asheville, N. C., and is slightly improving.

THE DIPHTHERIA CURE.

Public Subscriptions in France and Germany So That Poor People May Benefit.

The remarkable discovery of Dr. Roux, the devoted collaborator of Pasteur, for the prevention and cure of that most fatal of infantile diseases, diphtheria, is now attracting attention. The remedy consists of subcutaneous injections of serum of the blood of animals inoculated with the poison of the diphtheria bacillus. The success which has attended the employment of the serum has been so great that it is being generally adopted in France and Germany, where public subscriptions have been opened, so as to place the saving fluid, which is necessarily expensive, within reach of the poor as well as the rich.

In the majority of cases children suffering from the disease do not succumb to asphyxiation, as is commonly supposed, but to the poison secreted in the throat by the microbes, which contaminates the blood more or less speedily, according to the virulence of the attack. The injection of the anti-diphtheric serum confers immediate immunity, but does not act as a counter-poison until some hours later. In cases, therefore, where the ravages of the poison are too advanced the serum is non-effective. Neither has it any influence upon other maladies by which diphtheria is often complicated, such as measles, broncho-pneumonia, etc. But it is a certain cure for cases of diphtheria pure and simple, if taken in time, and will thus be the means of preserving many a little life which the methods hitherto employed would fail to save.

Experiments have shown that horses furnish the best and largest quantities of serum. The blood is tapped from the jugular and furnishes a serum of perfect limpidity. The operation causes no pain whatever to the horse, and is performed once a month, when about four quarts of blood are procured, the loss of which does not weaken the animal excessively. The horses operated upon in Paris are young and perfectly healthy animals, but are mostly unfit for harnessing, owing to defects in the legs.

The treatment of a case of diphtheria, which the whole population of serum, which is injected by means of a small syringe fitted with a needle at the point. The operation is so simple that in case of necessity any person could attempt it. The liquid causes a swelling about the size of a walnut, which, however, subsides in ten minutes, and the patient experiences no pain beyond the prick of the needle.

ROMANCE FROM NICARAGUA.

How an American Saved a Girl and Then Married Her.

A very romantic wedding was solemnized at Bluefields, in Nicaragua, recently in which a St. Louis boy widely known in the best circles in the town, Louis D. Peignet, was married to a young lady whose life and whose sister's life he had gallantly protected during the worst time in the recent revolution in Nicaragua, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Mr. Peignet went to Bluefields some time previous to the uprising, and was engaged in business for St. Louis houses throughout the isthmus. When the trouble came on and the rioters seized the town, young Peignet and several other Americans armed themselves to protect the ladies who were exposed to the most appalling perils. General Lecoayo, who commanded the Nicaraguan troops, left his wife and her sister in the village, not anticipating any emene, and it was these hapless women who fell to young Peignet's charge. He got them safely into a stone house with a large, well-guarded cellar on one of the side streets, and there during the whole of the sack and the fighting he kept guard over them, gun in hand, permitting no one to enter the premises but known friends, and frequently having to face desperate drunken rioters, who were searching for Miss Lecoayo everywhere. When order was restored and it was safe for the ladies to reappear, Mr. Peignet evidently found that the close association of three days with the pretty young donna had sealed his fate, and he proposed and was accepted upon the raising of the state of siege. There were paternal and maternal consents and blessings to be secured both in Nicaragua and Missouri, but the gallantry of Peignet's defense of the ladies in the one place and his father's pride in the young man's pluck and endurance in the other made all this more formula. The new Mrs. Peignet comes of one of the oldest and wealthiest Central American families. She is an heiress, and is connected in that carefully guarded line of the "gentle fine" with most of the Spanish-American aristocracy between the City of Mexico and Bogota. She was educated in New York, at Paris and at Madrid, and besides the usual accomplishments which young ladies of her station have, she is a finished linguist and a highly trained musician.

Louis D. Peignet bears a name equally well known in St. Louis and New York. His great-grandfather was an officer in the Imperial Guard of Napoleon, and fought under the Emperor up to the crash at Waterloo.

THE MIKADO'S DEPARTURE.

How Japan's Ruler Left Tokio for the Seat of War.

Hiroshima, situated at the south-western extreme of the mainland, was decided upon to be the base and headquarters of general operations of the Japanese army and navy in prosecuting the war against China. It was on the 13th of September, 1894, that His Majesty decided to go to Hiroshima and take command and thus direct the war himself.

At seven in the morning he left his palace, accompanied by His Majesty, the Empress, Prince Arisugawa and other high military officers. The procession was preceded by eight mounted police captains, followed by a large number of cavalry from the Imperial Guard, who guarded His Majesty's carriage in front and rear. The Mikado on this occasion was dressed in the uniform of a great marshal, and the Empress was in European dress, the material having
